

TWO by TWO

Jesus began to send them two by two; that is, as a Christian couple. Jesus today is sending the two into the world to form a domestic church, their family. The power of the sacrament of Marriage is building the Kingdom of Christ here among us. At the celebration of the sacrament of marriage Jesus says: go and be witnesses of my love. As disciples of Christ (because of our baptism) the Christian couples are sent two by two to build His kingdom, by forming a family, a domestic church.

“Jesus gave them authority over the unclean spirits.” The Sacrament of marriage gives the spouses special graces; in particular they have the power to keep the evil spirits out of their home; they have the power to heal vices and deep wounds in their lives and bring about a new creation, their family, according to the spirit of Love.

“He ordered them to take nothing for the journey; no bread, no bag, no money...” Marriage is a journey that lasts the whole life long. Sometimes the spouses are too worried about bread, bag and money, which slow down immensely their journey. The spouses only need their sandals and one tunic (not two). Their attachment to material things can make their journey almost impossible. If he wants to walk, the disciple of Christ (the couple) has to be free from all attachments.

“Wherever you enter a house...” To create a “Christian house” is a serious and sacred commitment. Their house has to become a temple of the love of Christ. They have to build, love and remain in their house as a sacred space, where the children will be able to breathe the joy and grace of the sacrament of marriage, which the couple has received.

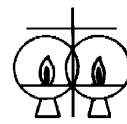

“They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them”. If we only knew the power of God hidden in the sacrament of marriage! The couple has the power to cast out demons and to heal the wounds of division and all other wounds that life at times brings our way. Jesus is sending today every couple, two by two, to build His kingdom.
