

JESUS TAKES A DAY OFF.

“Come away to a deserted place and rest a while”.

“They had no leisure even to eat”.

After a week of had work, Jesus invites the disciples to get away from the crowd and go to a deserted place to rest.

It is very interesting to see how Jesus is preoccupied for the mental health of his disciples. He demands that they take some time off, away from everybody and everything, just for their mental sanity. To take a rest is an obligation that God had given us since the creation of the world. To take some time off is not just a good idea, it is a command; that is why God gave us the “Sabbath”. To work 24/7 is not in the plan of God.

One good method of living is to assign a time for everything, as the book of Sirach tells us. A time to work and a time to rest; a time for war and a time for peace. If you make a schedule for yourself, you know what you are going to cover and when you are going to do it; and this gives you a peace of mind. In your schedule, put one day where you will not accept any appointments or any responsibility. That day is for you, for your family and for the Lord. Try it, you’ll like it!

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PRIESTS.

Our parish is very fortunate to welcome Fr. Jose’ and Fr. Joseph to our parish community. Fr. Jose’ is Mexican and will take care of the Hispanic Community; Fr. Joseph is Filipino and will take care of the Filipino Community. Both of them are assistants to the whole parish, so they will not limit their pastoral work only to their respective communities, but to the whole parish.
