

THE WORLD HUNGER

In the Gospel this Sunday we read about the great miracle when Jesus fed more than five thousand people. As a consequence of this miracle people came to the conclusion that He was the prophet they were waiting for. The material bread brought them to understand the need for spiritual food.

When today we speak of “hunger” we immediately think about the poor children of Africa, but I believe that our western world is suffering of hunger more than those poor countries. Today we (the rich nations) are the poor people of the world. We have money, but we have lost the spirit. We have a great economy, but we have created whole countries of starving people. We have the greatest technology, but also the highest number of gun violence. We have the greatest comfort and easy way of life, but we have the highest rate of suicides.

Who is better off? Many people today do not want to live any longer in this world, because they are already dead inside! Many people do not know why they are in this world and refuse to think about their future. Many people are starving and searching for some meaning in life and they do not find it.

So what is the real “bread” to satisfy our hunger? Where can we find meaning for our lives and for the lives of our young families? There is only one “real bread”, which is the Eucharistic Bread, the bread of life, Jesus Christ. What makes our bodies living inside of us is the soul, the spirit of God in us; so the only bread that will keep us alive is the spiritual bread, the bread of Life. Am I living or a walking dead?

When is the last time that I took care of my soul? When is the last time that I gave some spiritual food to my children? Are they dead or alive?
