

A COMMUNITY OF FISHERMEN.

The Gospel today has a radical message for those who want to be disciples of Jesus. But today I want to go back to the message of last week: “You will become fishers of people”.

Last Wednesday, at a meeting of the priests with Bishop Boissonneau, I realized that in our parish we need many more “fishermen”. We need to offer many more services to our people. We have no committee for refugees, and our parish is home for many of them. We need a committee for Share Life, which is offering so many services even here in our Dufferin-Peel region. In our parish we have to start talking about vocations; not only for priesthood and religious life, but also for the vocation of Christian family, consecrated singles and youth & children. We are all called to be disciples in our life. Finally, I would like to start the YOUNG ADULT GROUP. In the past, in our parish there was a vibrant youth group; now they are probably married with children; we want to called them back; they are the backbone of our community; we want to offer a space for their ideas and engagement in our parish.

All these activities are founded in a deep spiritual life, which is expressed very clearly on the Gospel of this Sunday: What does it mean to be “poor” for the Kingdom of God today? What does it mean to be “hungry”, “sorrowful” and “be hated, excluded, reviled and defamed by the world” in today’s society?

How can we answer? By building a community of love and inclusion among us, the way Jesus has told us. For all of this we need people! Are you called to be a fisherman of people? Call Fr. Walter at the office and he will give you the nets!
