

PENTECOST: Historical fact and personal experience.

After His resurrection, the most pressing desire of Jesus was to communicate to his apostles the Holy Spirit. As a matter of fact the same evening of the resurrection, appearing to the scared disciples, locked up in the upper room, Jesus breaded on them and gave them the Spirit of peace & love, the power of forgiveness and the mission to evangelize. But from the "Acts of the Apostles" we gather that He had in mind something like and "official installation" of the Holy Spirit after ten days from his ascension to the Father. Repeatedly during the forty days after His resurrection He spoke about the "Advocate", the Spirit that the Father was going to send; a Spirit that would teach them everything that He had told them.

But Pentecost is a living reality. Pentecost is an experience that we all can live today in our lives. Actually we have already received the Holy Spirit at our Baptism and now He wants to re-create and re-rejuvenate our life, with all the potentials that God has given us at our creation. "To become the best we can be" is up to us and the Holy Spirit. Pentecost is the invitation to become what we can be. The Holy Spirit has all the graces we need; it is only up to us to ask for them and receive them.

Pentecost is the showering of graces on earth; with the Holy Spirit, God sends us all the good things we need in life for us and for all of humanity. Pentecost is happening also for the non-Christians and non-believers. God does not make distinction among His children and as the sun enlightens all creatures and the rain gives life to all flowers, so God this Pentecost will revive and renew the whole humanity and the whole creation. "Come, Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!"
