

WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS & REFUGEES.

Forced Migration is the thermometer of the spiritual health of our society. In the world today we have more than 200 million displaced people, for various reasons. The first reason is war and the second is poverty. At the same time we are witnesses of a few people getting richer and richer, to the point that they not even know how much money they have accumulated.

God has created the whole earth for the whole humanity. Any human being who come into the world has the right to live on this planet. Now if the arrogance and selfishness of a few countries can create so many problems for so many peoples, then it is time that these countries look at their policies and enter into a global vision of humanity. After all we are all in the same house. Why is it that some children of the human family go hungry, while next to them some children are squandering the goods of creation?

THE PARABLE OF THIS SUNDAY of Lazarus (immigrants) and the Rich Man (capitalism) is VERY APPROPRIATE!

OCTOBER – SYNOD OF AMAZONIA – MISSIONARY MONTH MONTH OF THE ROSARY.

The month of October 2019 will be an historical month. The Catholic Church is engaged in the celebration of a greatly anticipated GENERAL SYNOD on the Amazonian region. Since it is a general assembly, it will have an impact on the whole Catholic Church. Even though it springs up from the church in Amazonia, it will be applied to the whole Church, after the approval of the Holy Father.

In Germany there is another “local” synod going on. However this synod has not received the endorsement of the Holy Father. The German Bishops and a strong “Lay Committee” have decided to go forward on their own. It will take up to two years before they will reach any “binding” conclusion. However this sends a signal of division and confusion to all catholic faithful, since they are not in union with the universal church.

The Pope has asked for special prayers for the “renewal of the church”. Being the month of the Rosary, we will dedicate all our rosaries recited in Church for the renewal of the Church and Holiness of the Priesthood

For this reason, we will have during the 5 Thursdays of October a 3 hours special Silent Eucharistic Adoration in church from 9:00pm till 12:00 midnight to pray for the sanctification of clergy (Bishops, Priest & Deacons). ALL ARE WELCOME.
