

LORD, INCREASE OUR FAITH!

It is strange that the disciple asked Jesus to increase their faith. They had Jesus Himself right in front of their eyes; they had seen so many miracles and still they asked for Faith. And Jesus tells them: "If you had the faith of a mustard seed", so He admitted that they needed more faith.

What about us today? Do we have faith in ourselves? Do we have faith in our spouses, in our children, in our relatives? Do we have faith in the Church, in the Pope in our bishops and religious leaders? Do we trust them or do we judge them! Do we question any word they say or do we try to understand where they are leading us to? Do we feel love and respect or anger and disappointment toward them? We are all in the same boat, so if I see a hole, I will try to close it; if I see that it does not move, I will start rowing.

But what is really "Faith"? We can translate it more as "Trust"! We can feel the certainty that things will be going better, that life is going to run smoothly, that the church will become again the light that Jesus had promised.

And this brings us to the AMAZONIAN SYNOD in Rome. Why so much confusion? Why so much criticism? Why so much fear? Isn't it Jesus the head of the Church? Isn't it the Holy Spirit the one who has put our Pope and our Bishop as shepherds? So let us listen and open our hearts! Maybe Jesus is trying to do something new in our church. Who are we to oppose Him? Maybe we can say again with the disciples: LORD INCREASE OUR FAITH!
