Fatima – A visit that changed history.

On May 13, 2020 we have celebrated the anniversary of the first apparition of the Blessed Mother to three children in Cova da Iria, Fatima, Portugal.

It was 1917, the year that ended the First World War and signed the beginning of the Bolscevic Revolution in Russia with Lenin and Stalin, which established a repressive political system, the Communist Party, by eliminating and killing the great family of the Zars. In Russia and in the eastern European countries we saw the arrival of a political ideology which will divide the world in two camps for a long cold war, while in China we see the communist revolution of Mao Tse Tung taking over the whole continent (half of the world population) in a little town of Portugal the Blessed Mother comes to promise peace to three little shepherds. On the first message she promised the end of the First World War, she warned of another war, the Second World War and the terror and repression of the communist party, which will spread all over the world. Already at that time in her message we find the warning about the threat on the life of the Pope. But, she insisted, saying that at the end “My Immaculate Heart will triumph”.

1947 – The second world was ended and the world was divided in two: the communist countries (the majority) and the capitalist empire (mostly Europe and USA). We must remember the atomic bomb of Iroshima, in Japan, where the US had proven the capability of destruction of the whole world. Today we built so many atomic bombs that could destroy five time the whole planet. At that time, many nations were under the fear of a total dictatorship of the communist ideology. At a certain point it seemed that the red dragon was conquering the whole world. Many countries in Latin America fell under the communist rule and the two superpowers, US and Russia were building armaments to prepare for war.

The Blessed Mother comes back with (her own) Pope John Paul II, (October 17, 1978) who is her instrument to defeat communism and put the world in a different trajectory, the way God had intended since the beginning of creation. Just a few points: The Berlin wall, which was dividing the city in two parts, fell without even a drop of blood. The communist regime is dismantled in silence, almost without any opposition. Nowhere in history we see a whole revolution won without a drop of blood. The president of the Communist Russia (Michael Gorbachov) pays visit to the Pope in the Vatican. The red dragon attempts the life of the Pope on May 13, 1983, but it does not succeed, marking this way the end of its empire of evil. Like Jesus on the cross, the blood of the Pope signs the end of the terrible empire.

The triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary however is not accomplished yet. In recent years we had many warnings from the Blessed Mother (Belgium, Venezuela, Japan, Medjugorje, USA) but her appeal was not heeded; so we come to this year’s pandemic, which falls again during the anniversary of the apparition of Fatima. Here She comes to call us again back to God. Just think for a moment, that the Blessed Mother has come to Medjugorje for over 35 years (never happened in the history of Christianity) to warn us that the world is going the wrong way, but we do not listen. What else can the Blessed Mother do to warn her children that we are in a wrong path. When will we be able to celebrate with her the TRIUMPH OF HER IMMACULATE HEART?
