PENTECOST

The event of Pentecost is a grace, which continues its action till today. It is not just a historical one, but a present one till the end of times. The Holy Spirit is continuously coming to renew and to recreate the face of the earth. So today is Pentecost with the same graces and effects of the first time.

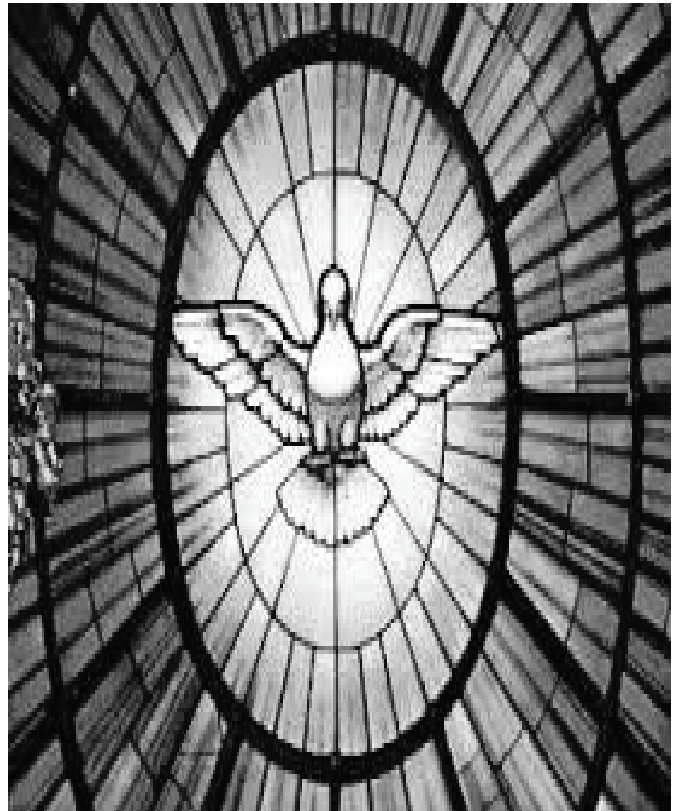

Fear is the only force that can stop this wind. Fear is the only cold emotion that can freeze the warmth of the Holy Spirit. Fear is the darkness that can obscure the soul of the disciple. “Courage” was the word that John Paull II always had in his mouth.

Sound, wind and fire are the symbols of the inner transformation the apostles went through and now for all disciples. All these symbols point to the energy and the motion the Holy Spirit brings to those who welcome Him with open heart.

The disciples were “all together” in the upper room (Acts says “one place” so it could be any place, like the church, the house, the workplace...) and this signifies the unity in prayer for the first community. At the center of the community there was Mary. Equally, if we want to receive the Holy Spirit today we have to put at the center Mary again.

People were bewildered and amazed. The ability to be amazed is part of the gifts of Pentecost. Are we able to be bewildered? Are we able to be amazed? Let’s not be afraid to let the Holy Spirit enter our life and we will remain bewildered and amazed.

This year of pandemic, we need the Holy Spirit more than ever before. We need to recreate the whole world, and we better do it right this time, according to the laws and plans of God. Come Holy Spirit we need you, especially this year.
