

EVERYTHING IS READY; COME TO THE WEDDING BANQUET.

Today we have a great invitation from our Lord: we are invited to a wedding feast. Which one? Our own!

Yes, because the Lord has fallen in love with us. Instead of counting ourselves among the guests, today we want to feel like the bride with whom the Lord has fallen in love.

He has prepared a great abundance of gifts for the feast; He has slaughtered the fat calf and oxen, he has choice wines, everything is ready for us. We only have to celebrate and enjoy the feast.

Maybe in the past we acted like the guests of the parable; at time we did not respond, at time we “made light of it” and found a lot of excuses, like family, business, friends, career.

Sometimes we acted like guests instead of being the bride, with whom the Lord has fallen in love. The banquet is ready! Let us not delay any longer for becoming part of a joyful celebration; and not just any celebration, but our “wedding celebration” with the Lord.

The relationship with God is all a matter of love, because He is love itself. God only waits for us to enter into the intimacy of His love, because He is deeply in love with us. We only have to accept His invitation and He will prepare everything for us to enjoy and celebrate. The banquet is ready! What are we waiting for?
