

READY FOR MISSION?

- Jesus called the twelve and began to SEND them out two by two.

- He gave them authority over the unclean spirits
- He ordered them to take NOTHING for the journey except a staff, a pair of sandals and one tunic.

This does not look like a good preparation for a journey that could last a whole lifetime. Ordinarily you prepare for a trip and try to figure out what you will need in the other place; Jesus instead is telling them not to trust in themselves but only in his authority and his spirit.

When we prepare for a mission ordinarily you gather all your experience, all your resources and all your knowledge. Not so for the mission of God; when you have prepared yourself, you put aside all your knowhow and you trust the inspiration of the Master. You don't go by what you know, but by what the Master is telling you, step by step.

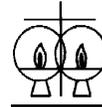

First, he sends his disciples "two by two" for obvious reasons: Two opinions are better than one; avoiding protagonism is fundamental in the work of God, because number one is not the disciple but God himself; one disciple alone could get discouraged by the negative reaction that the disciples are bound to find often in the work of God.

Jesus then gives his disciples His authority to cast out unclean spirits, which signify all that is contrary to a clean life, a compromised behavior, corruption in the workplace, violence in the house and all that is contrary to our conscience.

Then Jesus tells them to take a staff, a pair of sandals and only one tunic. Yes, because if you have a long walk, you need a staff and a very light weight in your shoulders. Here again you have to rely not on yourself, but on the welcome of the people to which you are going to.

But many times the disciples are confronted with rejection and ridicule! No problem, there are many other people who will be interested in the message of the disciples. Don't look back, don't stop, shake off even the dust (don't bother looking for excuses or justifications) and just keep going. The Lord will open new horizons. Just keep going.

Now, where is our first mission? THE FAMILY. Don't give up and don't stop bringing the good news to your kids and your family. Remember that it is Jesus who sent you!
