

WHOEVER IS NOT AGAINST US IS FOR US

Sometimes we have a club mentality even in our church; if you have paid the dues and are a registered member, you are welcome, otherwise you are out. This is even worse when we talk about ministries and apostolates in our communities. If you don't have a baptism certificate you cannot be a Sponsor or a Godfather; if you did not take the course you cannot read the bible at mass; if you are not part of the inner group you cannot lead the prayer....

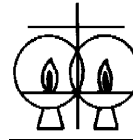

Jesus is calling everybody to salvation and sending everybody in mission. The example of the Gospel today really opens our minds and hearts toward a universality of the redemption and salvation. He has come for all mankind, not only for the baptized, not only for Catholics but also for Muslims, for Chinese, for the communists, for the homeless and for the stranger.

Salvation is for all and we are sent to all and we have to welcome all. God can use anyone to bring about salvation in this world; He does not have to go through our narrow ways and our limited possibilities or ideas in order to reach out to all His children on earth.

Whoever does good is already inside the Kingdom of God.

THIS WEEKEND WE CELEBRATE THE WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

The Christian Community is the house of all and is open to welcome especially those who are not welcome among us, because they are strangers or refugees. No one is excluded in our family. A SPECIAL MULTICULTURAL MASS WILL BE CELEBRATED AT 1:00pm this Sunday. After the Mass in the Main Hall we will have the FESTIVAL OF NATIONS. Each country will display their culture with music and food. This is the first step to get to know each other in our community.
