

A PROPHET IS NOT WELCOME IN HIS OWN HOUSE.

Last week we saw Jesus going to the Synagogue in Nazareth and been welcomed by his own townfolks. Today we see the rejection that he endures by his own people. Really, he was trying to help them to open up to the great wonders God was going to perform through one of their own. Instead of rejoicing because one of their own was the anointed by God, the Messiah, they felt jealous and tried to put him down. "Who does he think he is"? He is only the son of a carpenter; we know his mother and sisters! And actually they tried even to kill him! What a foolish attitude!

To criticize, to gossip, to belittle members of our own family at times becomes a very toxic attitude even in our own homes. There are brothers who do not speak to each other for years, because one has made more money than the other. Sometimes even disputes of inheritance in another country, can divide brothers and sisters and their descendants for life.

But another very damaging attitude is to envy the goods of others. We constantly compare the goods of one family with the other. We feel compelled to show that our family is "doing well"; many times we wish we could get a better job, not because we need more money to live, but to show that our family is better than theirs. And the sad consequence is that they will never be able to enjoy the little they have, because they are always anxious to become better than the others.

Basically, we are blaming God for our situation. If we really look into it, we have more than enough to live on, but since our childhood we were inoculated with this virus of jealousy, which will torment us for the rest of our life. As antibody we should develop the attitude of being happy with what we have, because that is what God has deemed necessary for our life and for our family. Why desire something that at the end we do not need and eventually will have to give up? Why spend all our time and energy in searching how to outsmart the other? Why not be happy for what our neighbor has achieved? Why not recognized the good that is in our family as well as in our friends' families?

Can we welcome the prophet of our family inside our own home?

SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

As many Times as Scalabrini bade farewell and blest his poor migrant people leaving from the train station on their way to Genoa, he witnessed firsthand the heartbreak caused by the separation and felt the sadness and the moral responsibility for their spiritual safety. “ It was then that I felt it my duty to turn (to the Holy See). At an audience on June 26, 1887, the Holy Father approved the decision to establish in Italy one or more institutes for priests who wish to go to America to work among the emigrants to help sustain their faith, always with the understanding of the local bishops. Later I was called to Rome where I was authorized to open an Institute for the missionaries in Piacenza and to assist the emigrants, as much as possible, in all their needs.”

From J.B. Scalabrini Aug. 10, 1900
