

BUT, IF YOU SAY SO....

A carpenter cannot teach a fisherman the art of fishing, but this time Jesus taught Peter, the head fishermen, where to throw the net; and there was an extraordinary catch!

The Gospel today speaks to us on three different levels. First Jesus asks Simon to move the boat a bit out to the water, not far from the shore, so He can preach to the crowd which had gathered. The water was not deep, as was the teaching for the crowds. To the crowds He used to speak always in parables. Then Jesus asked Peter to go into the deep waters. The second level of His teaching is on a deeper level. Ordinarily Jesus used to explain things in private to his disciples. And then, thirdly, he tells Peter to do something that a fisherman ordinarily never does: to throw the nets during daylight. As a matter of fact, Peter tells Jesus: Look we have tried all night and we have caught nothing. Now you want us to throw the nets when it is not even the right time. BUT, Peter continues, IF YOU SAY SO... I will throw the nets.

We know the conclusion! They caught so many fish that the boat almost sank and they had to call the other boat for help to carry all those fish to shore. Then Peter realized that he should have never objected to the word of Jesus, even if it did not make any sense for an experienced fisherman like himself. "Get away from me, for I am a sinner! I am not worthy even to be in your presence!"

ON YOUR WORD! This must be our constant attitude toward Jesus. We might have our own experience, maybe even our own ways of doing things, but when Jesus tells us something we should abandon our own way and throw our nets where Jesus is telling us. We should trust Him even in the material things of our daily life. He knows everything and He can do it.

Yes Lord, if You say so, I will throw all my nets on your side.

SCALABRINI THE FOUNDER

"I can say that, with God's help, the work the Lord inspired me to undertake on behalf of our poor emigrants has been successfully launched. After Rome's approval, I got down to work. So far, we have five people: The superior and the treasurer, who will remain here, and three students...The priests asking to be admitted are not lacking, especially after the publication of the Brief sent to me by the Holy Father. But I plan to go slowly in honoring their requests, because I want to move ahead slowly but surely, especially in the beginning...I must honestly say we have to be thankful to the Lord. Of course, we need lots of patience, courage, and spirit of sacrifice for the undertaking to fully achieve its purpose. Personally I will do my best. God will do the rest." J.B. Scalabrini, Letter to Card. G. Simeoni, Dec. 16, 1887
