

THE NEW NAME OF GOD IS "MERCY"

Jesus Himself has personally requested St. Faustina Kowalska to promote the celebration of the "Mercy Sunday" on the first Sunday after Easter, beginning the Novena on Good Friday. From the blood and water coming from his side we receive this new fountain of grace, which is the mercy of God.

That God is merciful for a thousand generations was already known by David in his psalms, but that mercy is the greatest attribute of the majesty of God, this has become clear during our modern times, through the revelations of Jesus to St. Faustina. And this revelation is very, very recent; remember that St. Faustina died on October 5, 1938 (I was born in 1947, so it is not an ancient time!). For us modern people this is a great discovery, very appropriate for the turmoil of our age.

"Mercy is greater than Justice"! This is the basic teaching about mercy. Certainly, in God there is Justice, especially when He has to correct our mistakes and faults, but mercy comes first. If we accept His mercy, then we do not need His justice; but if we don't accept His mercy then He has to correct us with his justice.

Mercy begins from the cross! The roman soldier with his lance opened the heart of Jesus, from where blood and water came out. With his blood Jesus has paid all our sins and with his water He is giving us new life. So even our sins are all paid for; we are left only with His mercy from now on, till eternity.

We Christians have a great responsibility to let our modern civilization know that God is Mercy; there is too much sin and hate in the world today; we have to bring out this new grace, which is the mercy of God. It is part of this NEW EVANGELIZATION that Pope John Paul has promoted so much for the third millennium. Actually, we can call Pope John Paul as the "mercy Pope". He is from the same country, Poland; he has made St. Faustina a saint; he has established for the universal church the feast of Mercy; he died on the eve of Mercy Sunday.

So, we are not afraid of God anymore. He is our sweet Father and he is only interested in forgiving with the maternal love all His children. Today let us jump into the embrace of our merciful Father and enjoy His merciful love!
