

GOD IS MOST DESERVING OF OUR GRATITUDE

My dear friends in Christ, the mercy of God is the root of our blessing, healing and progress. But for the mercy of God, we would not be where we are today. It beholds on us therefore, to develop a spirit of appreciation and gratitude to God for being who he is to us. Ingratitude is a cankerworm that has eaten deep into man; it has made a home inside of man and is affecting him seriously. Like the nine lepers in Luke 17:11-19, we come to Christ many times with desperate longing, once we are blessed however, we go away rejoicing and never return to say 'thanks'.

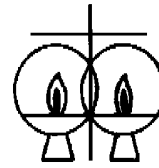

May I challenge all of us to try gratitude in those moments when we need a saving. At those times when our prayers seem unanswered by God, may we hear God saying to us 'try saying thank you for all you have done for me'. May we learn to acknowledge the might of God and his providential care for us. May we remember that all we have is a given and a consequence of God's mercy and so realize how needful it is to return thanks to him. Sincere gratitude does not add anything to God's greatness; rather it profits us for salvation, we may do well to remember that always. "Bless the Lord my soul, and never forget all his benefits".
